

Website Privacy Notice

The protection of your personal information is of paramount importance to us. We will use data that you do choose to provide or that is being collected through your use of the website and which can identify you, only in line with the provisions of this Online Privacy Statement and in accordance with applicable data protection regulations.

This Online Privacy Statement sets out the type, scope and purpose of collecting, processing and using personal information you do choose to provide when visiting and /or which may be transmitted via the WPE Ltd website (<http://www.wpe.ltd/>) (hereinafter "our website"). Please note that the use of our website does not require you to provide any personal information.

Each individual whose personal identifiable information is collected, recorded or used by WPE Ltd, has the right to know how that information will be stored, used and transferred and also has rights to access and control the use of that information (Data Protection Act 1998 and (from 25 May 2018) the General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter "the Act"). Personal identifiable information means any information on the basis of which an individual (the data subject) can be identified such as e.g. name, email address, phone number or the like. For more information on your rights of access, rectification and erasure of any personal data that we may hold about you, how to exercise these rights, and our contact details, please see section 5.

For the purpose of the Act, the data controller and data processor is Weymouth Precision Engineers Limited of 2 Kent Close, Granby Industrial Estate, Weymouth, DT4 9TF (hereinafter "WPE" or "we", "us").

Our supervisory authority for data protection purposes is the Information Commissioner's Office (ico.org.uk). If you believe that we have processed your personal data in breach of this Online Privacy Statement or the relevant laws and regulations, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office.

This Online Privacy Statement does not cover other websites with their own Online Privacy Statements. We encourage to read the Online Privacy Statement on the other websites you visit.

By visiting our website you are accepting and consenting to the practices described in this policy.

1. Information collected through the use of our website and use of this information

a. Contact Forms

Our website gives you the opportunity to provide information to us by filling in a contact form for example to request a quote or information on our services or indicate your interest in a job opportunity at WPE. The information you give to us may include your name, address, email address and phone number, age and date of birth, employer information and information about your role.

We use this information to:

- provide you with the information, products and services that you request;

Please be aware that data transfer via the internet (e.g. when communicating via email) is subject to security risks. Therefore, complete protection against third-party access to transferred data cannot be ensured.

b. Log information

When you visit our website we collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns, such as:

- Date and time of your visit;
- type and version of the browser you use;
- operating system;
- your Internet Protocol (IP) address
- the full URL clickstream to, through and from our website (e.g. websites that you have visited and products viewed or searched for, page response times, download errors, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction (such as scrolling, clicks and mouse-overs) and methods used to browse away from the page);
- time zone setting; and
- plug in types and version for system administration.

This anonymous data enables us to further develop and enhance our website. We use Lead Forensics Ltd to process the collected data and identify businesses that have repeatedly visited our website. We do not attempt to find your personal identity as a result of your visit to our website. We will not associate any data collected in this way with any personally identifying information from any other source in order to identify you.

2. Storage and transfer of information to third parties

We will store your information on our secure servers and may share your personal information with other companies if required for legitimate business purposes to optimise our services to you.

We may transfer the personal information that we collect from you to a destination outside of the UK and, in some cases, outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) if necessary for the processing purposes we have described above (including where we transfer your personal information to third parties). In these cases, staff operating outside of the EEA who work for us or one of our suppliers may process your personal information. By submitting your personal information, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing.

We will ensure, where your personal information is transferred to third parties or outside of the EEA, that appropriate measures are in place to protect your personal information and ensure that it is processed in accordance with the Act at all times.

3. Links to other websites

This Online Privacy Statement does not cover the links within our website linking to other websites. We encourage you to read the privacy statements on the other websites you visit.

4. Changes and amendments to our Online Privacy Statement

WPE may change and amend this Online Privacy Statement from time to time. Changes will be communicated through updates on our website. We recommend that you regularly access our website to ensure that you agree with any changes or amendments.

5. Access to your personal information / Right of rectification and erasure

You have the right to request details of personal information that we hold about you, under the Act.

In case the information we hold about you is outdated or incorrect you have the right to request an update and correction of the relevant data. You may also have a right to request the erasure of personal data we hold about you provided that we do not have a statutory obligation, contractual agreement requiring that data or an outweighing legitimate interest to keep such data.

Any request for access, rectification or erasure must be made in writing to the contact address set out in Section 6 below. This will be responded to within 30 days and will be free of charge.
